WORLD WIDE WEB

The WorldWideWeb (W3) is a wide-area hypermedia[1] information retrieval initiative aiming to give universal access to a large universe of documents.

Everything there is online about W3 is linked directly or indirectly to this document, including an executive summary[2] of the project, Mailing lists[3] , Policy[4] , November's W3 news[5] , Frequently Asked Questions[6] .

What's out there?[7]Pointers to the world's online information, subjects[8] , W3 servers[9], etc.

Help[10] on the browser you are using

Software Products[11] A list of W3 project components and their current state. (e.g. Line Mode[12] ,X11 Viola[13] , NeXTStep[14] , Servers[15] , Tools[16] , Mail robot[17] , Library[18])

Technical[19] Details of protocols, formats, program internals etc

“I often compare open source to science. To where science took this whole notion of developing ideas in the open and improving on other peoples' ideas and making it into what science is today and the incredible advances that we have had.

And I compare that to witchcraft and alchemy, where openness was something you didn't do.”

Linus Torvalds, 2006
